

AMERICAN MADE (Made in the USA)

November 10, 2022

Dear National Mailboxes Customers,

This letter certifies that National Mailboxes and Florence Corporation complies with the requirements of Buy America as outlined in 49 U.S.C. 5323(j)(1), and the applicable regulations in 49 CFR part 661 as referenced below:

S661.5 General Requirements:

- (a). Except as provided in S661.7 and S661.11 of this part, no funds may be obligated by FTA for a grantee project unless all iron, steel, and manufactured products used in the project are all produced in the United States.
- (b). All steel and iron manufacturing processes must take place in the United States, except metallurgical processes involving refinement of steel additives.
- (c). The steel and iron requirements apply to all construction materials made primarily of steel or iron and used in infrastructure projects such as transit or maintenance facilities, rail lines, and bridges. These items include, but are not limited to, structural steel or iron, steel or iron beams and columns, running rail and contact rail. These requirements do not apply to steel or iron used as components or subcomponents of other manufactured products or rolling stock, or bimetallic power incorporating steel or iron components.
- (d). For a manufactured product to be considered produced in the United States:
 - (1). All of the manufacturing processes for the product must take place in the United States and
 - (2). All of the components of the product must be of U.S origin. A component is considered of U.S origin if it is manufactured in the United States, regardless of the origin of its subcomponents.

National Mailboxes and Florence Corporation manufactures its centralized mailbox products in the United States of America. Our factory is located at 5935 Corporate Drive, Manhattan, Kansas 66503.

Since 1934, all of National Mailboxes and Florence Corporation's products have been and are "Made in the USA". Both design and manufacturing are done at our company headquarters in Manhattan, Kansas 66503. In order to be entirely self-sufficient in today's world and not be reliant on foreign countries we believe that Americans should manufacture as much as possible here in the United States of America. We hope and trust you feel this way as well.

National Mailboxes give credence to the greatness of the American work force, and that American products are simply the best in the world. For working families to make it in America, we need to “Make it in America”. We believe in employing as many of our citizens as we can. For every “Made in America” product we produce we sustain our employee’s families, and we create jobs for other Americans.

If you feel this way too, please partner with us and use National Mailboxes products and supplies. Not only will you be purchasing world-class high quality mailbox products, you also will be instrumental in sustaining the hard-working American families that make up National Mailboxes and the Florence Corporation.
